(d) if so, what are the reasons therefor; and

(e) the estimated funds saved as a result thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI UTTAMBHAI H. PATEL): (a) and (b) The physical target for providing assistance to families below poverty line under the Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP) has been provisionally lowered from 22.51 lakh families in 1991-92 to 18.75 lakh families in 1992-93. Within the budgetary constraints, emphasis has been given more on qualitative improvement of the programme by stepping up investment per family. As per the provisional figures of 1991-92 IRDP assistance has been provided to 23.56 lakh families against the target of 22.51 lakhs. The total capital outlay of the central government on IRDP in 1991-92 was Rs. 390.4 crores, subsequently revised to Rs. 370.4 crores. The State Governments were required to allocate matching funds of equal amount for this programme.

(c) Government has delinked the financial provisions of Training for Rural Self Employment (TRYSEM) Scheme from IRDP, from 1-4-91. That position continues. The question of further delinking does not arise.

(d) Does not arise.

(e) None.

Typical Villages

1320. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the PRIME MINSTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any plan under Governfent's consideration to adopt typical villages in India and see that there is no scarcity of supplies, housing, education, health, jobs and all other basical needs; and

(b) if so, what are the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI UTTAMBHAI H. PATEL): (a) and (b) Under the Minimum Needs Programme of the State Governments funds are provided in the State Plans for provision of basic facilities, like education, health nutrition, roads, housing, drinking water supply and electrification in the villages. Besides, under the Centrally Sponsored Schemes like Jawahar Rozgar Yojana and Integrated Rural Development Progromme, self-employment and wage employment opportunities are created in the rural sector. There is no proposal under consideration for adoption of villages for providing all basic needs there.

भूमि सुधारों का कार्यान्वियन

1321. श्री राम नरेश यादव : क्या प्रधान-मंत्री यह बताने की कृपा करेंगे कि :
